

Gordon Wylie
MSc (Eng.), Eur. Ing., C. Eng.

Summary

Gordon is a seasoned senior manager with over 20 years experience in consulting engineering, management consultancy and telecommunications. Gordon has performed and led teams of engineers and consultants on major projects including strategic and business planning, operations planning and organization reviews, feasibility studies and investment appraisals, PFI, program management, and high level project reviews and risk assessments across 15 industry and service sectors, with a particular focus on capital projects.

Over the past 20 years, Gordon was a structural engineer and project manager with a variety of leading professional and commercial organizations, including:

- Ove Arup & Partners (London)
- Coopers & Lybrand (UK, Norway and Italy)
- Director of the Global Commercial Group at Cable & Wireless (London)

Education

- MBA (Distinction) from INSEAD, France, an
- M.Sc. (Eng.) in Advanced Structural Analysis & Design (Distinction) from Imperial College London
- B.Sc. (Eng.) in Civil Engineering (First Class Honours) from Imperial College London
- European Engineer (Eur. Ing.)
- Chartered Engineer (C. Eng.)

Affiliations

- Member of the Institution of Structural Engineers (M.I.Struct.E.)
- Member of the Institution of Civil Engineers (M.I.C.E.).